

Field Photojournalist & Storyteller

Main objective of the role:

The CBM Regional Asia & America team is looking forward to engaging a short-term Field Photojournalist & Storyteller to ensure accountable collection of high-quality client and partner stories, photographs, film footage and content for new media in Haiti

We are looking for someone who will...

- Write compelling, comprehensive, and truthful reports in English (human interest stories) and take high quality and compelling pictures – according to agreed deliverables/timelines
- Liaise with CBM Regional Communication Coordinator regarding resource collection, give regular reports about status, planned activities, and roadblocks of work to the line manager
- Engage and oversee local videography support and organize all related logistics
- Organize field visits and other duty travels well ahead of time, liaise with CBM partners regarding the pre-identification of clients, re transport, availability of field staff - and organize own travel logistics
- To provide material for social media (short stories/pictures/video clips)
- To sort pictures made with relevant description (correct IPTC) and upload them together with stories to CBM Online Media Archive
- To accompany resource trips of CBM staff as writer or photographer
- Support full and proper accountability of all expenses

We are looking for someone who has...

- A related photojournalism degree or equivalent diploma/education level and/or proven know-how in photojournalism theory with at least 2 years' experience
- Profound skills in photography, journalism, and storytelling

- Developed his/her own portfolio would be advantageous
- Ability to write compelling human-interest stories in English
- Exposure to topics such as news reporting, picture story, visual editing, magazine design, visual communication, news design and practical experience with electronic photojournalism
- Knowledge about video production and ability to take high quality videos is a plus
- Good understanding of development work
- Demonstrated ability to meet the required extensive travel and logistic demands
- Experience with working and/or traveling in occasionally insecure areas and following strict safety & security protocols
- Passion and commitment to the cause of helping people who are struggling to survive poverty and disability
- Result-driven approach in a remote working environment
- Profound cross-cultural communication and strong relationship building skills
- Proficiency in English and at least one local language
- Microsoft Office, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Premiere; Adobe Bridge
- Driving license

Please send us your CV and cover letter in English/French, a selection of 3 published reports + 5 "best of" pictures (low resolution) representing your previous work here: Naima.Sheikh@cbm.org

Application deadline: 30.09.2021